

The Reformation of the Revelation

The Bible tells us about the unique love that Jesus Christ has for His church. We are told that Christ gave Himself for the church. God has chosen the Christian church to be His powerful agent to impact the world with his glory. Therefore, the spiritual and material health of the local church is a concern for the Lord and should be a matter of corporate concern for those who are part of the church. In the last book of the Bible (the Revelation), Jesus Christ wrote seven letters to seven churches who were in need of instruction and admonition. The concept of reformation is the theme of these letters. Pastor Van Meter explains how these historical letters apply to all local churches today, and practically shows us what parallels exist between these seven churches and the congregation with which you worship. As he walks us through the letters, we are warned, exhorted and encouraged to ensure that we know what our Lord expects from His Bride. Wherever you are in the world, you can undoubtedly relate to one of the churches spoken of in these chapters. What would Jesus say if He sent a letter to your local church? With which church can you most identify? Which church would you desire to be part of? What changes might your church need to make? Pastor Van Meter reminds us that until we take Jesus Christ seriously, we will neither take reformation seriously, nor will we take seriously the potential the gospel has to transform our society through our own local churches. Read along and see how you can make a difference in your own congregation and together what effect your church could have on your own community and culture.
