

Grieving: Personal Reflections: A Rabbi Talks About His Grief

May 18, 2001. Naomi, wife of Rabbi Bulka, dies. Cancer. Here, in this book, we share the astonishingly honest, painful, and direct chronicle of a death. In the face of death, people experience a tumult of emotions, not just the person dying, but those who surround the person dying. Husbands and wives, children, family, friends. It is a period of enormous intensity and confusion. What to do? How to act? What to think? What and how to feel? This volume covers a wide range of issues and topics, including Just Before, Immediately After, The Community Scene, The Intense Mourning Period, Post-Mourning Mourning, Issues, Words and Gestures, Healing, Future Focus, Reaction, Impact, The Faith Factor, Managing, Choice, Perspective, and Fast, or Not So Fast Forward.
