

The Spiritual Catechism

Is there a place for the Charismatic in the modern Church? As a Catholic this person, a true Charismatic, investigates the very basic concepts of today's Church through the new Catholic Catechism. It is not to refute the doctrine of the Church but to view them as seen in the eyes and mind of the Charismatic. Saint Paul spoke of many gifts given by the Holy Spirit. Do the visions and dreams that underline the life of the Charismatic fit in with Saint Paul's concepts; do they have a place in the life of the Catholic Church today? Does the Charismatic have a sounding board in the modern Church? These questions are examined in this small volume.
